Alpha Phi Sigma Initiates 41 New Members

Five Receive Highest Honor Obtainable

The membership of Alpha Phi Sigma, national honorary scholastic fraternity, was increased by the addition of forty-one students to the rank of first degree members on Wednesday, November 2, 1938.

At the initiation ceremony, held from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock in Room 8 of Monroe Hall, the following students received their first degree: Marie A. Cox, Allie Barnes, Evelyn Griggs, Frances Sutherland, Caroline Tiger, Pauline Garrett, Jane Blake Walker, Mary Steck, Mary Elizabeth Miller, Janet Naylor, Edna Reed, Ruth Daniel, Ellen Cardwell, Josephine Reaser, Ann Smart, Jane Sinclair, Mary Coanally, Betty Willoughby, Elsie Davis, Ruth Chandler, Sue Echols, Alice Kean, Gwendoline Dawson, Evelyn Osborn, Carolyn Lawson, Marjorie Owen, Grace Fox, Sarah Meek, Sarah Boggs, Grace Davis, Shirley Gillette, Marjorie Clapp, June Thattuk, Ann Jones, Ann Baylor, Callista Upshaw, Jeanne Berry, Betty Anne Ridgeway, Mary E. Purves, Mary J. Powell, Margaret Early.

On Wednesday night at 7:00 o'clock, the initiation service for all girls receiving second and third degrees was held. Those who received the second degree were: Ruth Anderson, Muriene Crush, Janie Lee Reynolds, Jane Day, Glennis Powers, Raynell Goodman and Ella Blake.

The third degree, highest award to be achieved by an Alpha Phi Sigma, was given to: Mary A. Burgess, Elizabeth Snow, Mabelle Knopf, Kathryn Wygal, and Mrs. Grace Mercer.

At a recent call meeting of the fraternity, presided over by the president, Virginia Dickinson, it was decided that two pages of the 1938-39 Battiefield would be devoted to Alpha Phi Sigma activities. A group picture of all officers and the sponsor of the organization will constitute the first page; a picture of third degree members and a roster of members of each degree will make up the second page.

Freshman Class Elects Officers

The freshmen presidential campaign, terminating Friday, October 28, was a sweeping victory for Miss Bessie Swineford Peterson, better known to her classmates as Pat. She is a resident of Hopewell, Virginia.

The large number of presidential nominees caused the voting to be taken over several ties. Suspense held the group as candidate after candidate was eliminated. The race was doubtful until the final results.

Pat Peterson comes to this college with a fine high school record. A former officer of the student government at high school, she is well fitted to filling her present office. The fact that she is good in language might have been an aid to her campaign.

Prominent in sports at high school Pat intends to continue her favorite at college. She is majoring in physical education. Her favorite sport is swimming and she already has received awards for her ability.

Pi Sigma Kappa Holds Fall Election

The try-outs for membership into Pi Sigma Kappa were completed on Wednesday, October 26, and the following day those candidates who had successfully passed the requirements of the judging committee were voted into the organization.

On Monday, October 31, the twenty-seven new members were invited to a call meeting in the tearoom. At this time they were welcomed by the president, Frances Williams. The sponsors of the club were introduced to them, as well as the other officers of the club. The faculty members are Dr. Lindsey, Dr. Alvey, and Mr. Weiss, and the officers are: Vice-President, Elizabeth Middleton; Secretary, Adelaide Rosborough; and Treasurer, Sally Stokley.

In the business meeting the club decided to plan and give the Devotionals Program on Sunday, November 13. The meeting date of (Continued on Page 3)

English Club Elects New Officers

Annual Banquet Held
On October 28

The Modern Portias held their annual banquet at the Princess Anne Hotel Friday night, October 28, at seven o'clock. There were twenty-nine members present.

The picture for the yearbook was taken before the banquet began. When the meal was over, Dr. Shandle read an interesting paper on Tennyson's "In Memoriam." The business meeting followed, at which time three new officers were elected. Nancy Herr was elected vice-president, Anne Shaffer was elected sergeant-at-arms, and Dorothy Coddington was elected reporter.

Dr. Shandle's paper described the poem and explained it very fully. "In Memoriam" is a poem in the form of an elegy. The elegy is employed for the purpose of expressing lamentation over the dead. This poem is written in memory of Tennyson's friend, Arthur Henry Hallam, whom Tennyson had known for only about four or five years, was engaged to Celia, Tennyson's youngest sister.

This poem relates the story of the great sorrow through which Tennyson passed for seventeen years. There are seven main divisions of the poem. They are as follows: the prologue, the introduction, the arrival and burial of the body, the first Christmas, the second Christmas, the third Christmas, and the epilogue.

There were a few sarcastic criticisms of the poem, but they did not represent the scholarship of England of that time. Gladstone, probably one of England's most profound thinkers, said that he felt Tennyson had not in the least over-estimated the importance of Arthur Hallam. He said also that, "Tennyson gave to the world under the richest oblation ever offered by the affection of friendship at the tomb of departed."

The paper was very impressive, and was presented in a manner which was of interest to all. The topic was one which afforded pleasure as well as thought to those who heard it.

Juniors Announce Officers For Coming Year

At a meeting last week the Junior Class completed the election of its officers. The president of the Class, Leighton Stevens, was elected last year. The Vice-President is Jane Day; Kitty Roberts was elected Secretary; and Ruth Anderson was elected to fill the office of Treasurer.

These four girls with the Class sponsor, who is Dr. Richard Davis, had their pictures made for the Battiefield Tuesday.

MWC Students Are Honored In 'Who's Who'

Five Seniors And One Junior Named

Six students of Mary Washington have received the high honor of being chosen to represent this college in the "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. They are: Elizabeth Bodwell, Mary Burgess, Maude Raye Smith, Jane Sinclair, Helen Hyde and Mary Estes. All six of these girls have been outstanding assets to this school in character, leadership and scholarship.

Mary Burgess is president of the Student Government on the hill; Jane Sinclair is editor of the annual, "The Battiefield," and Elizabeth Bodwell, editor of the "Bulletin." Maude Raye Smith heads the Y. W. C. A., one of the most active organizations on the hill, and Helen Hyde is outstanding in the Athletic Association, Y. W. C. A., and is House President of the Freshman Dormitory, Frances Willard. Mary Estes, the only junior to receive this high honor, is Freshman Commissioner this year and has been outstanding in Y. W. work.

The purpose of "Who's Who" is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college courses, as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done, as a recommendation to the business world and as a standard of measurement for students comparable to Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Scholarship Award.

"Who's Who" is a national basis of recognition for students without politics, dues, or initiation fees. It is one of the greatest honors that a student can achieve and Mary Washington should be truly proud of her representation.

Sophomores Select Class Officers

On Monday night the Sophomore Class held a meeting to elect officers. Mary Elizabeth Welsh was elected Vice-President; Margaret Gilman is the new Secretary; and Margaret Snow was elected Treasurer. The class sponsor, Dr. Moss, had already been unanimously elected, and he was presented to the class at this meeting.

The officers and sponsor had their pictures made for the Battiefield on Wednesday. The other members of the class are already having these pictures taken.

All of the girls who hold offices are outstanding girls in campus affairs as well as in scholastic standing. Jeanette Cooper, who was elected President last spring, is a member of Alpha Pi Sigma, the Riding Club, and the International Relations Club. Mary Elizabeth Welsh belongs to Pi Sigma Kappa and was a member of the debating team last year.

THE DATE SET IS JAN. 7

KEYHOLE KOMMENTS

Mary George's O. and O. was down Sunday. Unexpectedly, says Mary G., but you can believe that if you want to.

Scoop of the week! Have you heard about that little Freshman's being secretly married? Don't quote me as saying because it may be just Dame Rumor at work again, but I definitely heard it for a fact.

Evelyn Lasley seems to be "caught between two loves, the old and the new". It must be wonderful to be in love, but when you're in love with two at the same time, that's what I call a real situation.

So the Irby's have met the Estes. Mary and Dick seem to be settling all the preliminaries. Incidentally, I guess you've heard that Mary missed the train at Ashland on her way back to school Sunday night. Are you sure it was unintentional, Mary?

Quite an error you made in English class, wasn't it, Marnie? I surely felt sorry for you.

There's one thing about Brookside—she sticks to V. P. I. even if she can't decide between Al and Pete. What's this I hear about your coming trip to V. P. I. when Al's away on a football trip? That's one way of avoiding unpleasant situations.

Myrtle Gordon will have as her guest, roommate Ruth Cheshire at her home in Washington this week-end.

Come, come, Virginia Fliske, open up your eyes again the week after the week-end at Virginia is here! Was fun we know!

Three cheers to Betty Washington! If it's apples you like, she has them. Do you get it? The boy friend's father has an orchard.

Come along now, Emerick; stop your beating around the mulberry bush and let's have a new party!

Winnie, how do you handle those Tech men—at any rate you certainly know how to "HUNT" them out and track them "DOWN."

Glenn Powers, at the next press dance, why not pick a date who can't dance; then maybe you can sit at least one out with him. And if you can't, don't gripe!

You seem to haunt the tea room: these Monday mornings, Plig Carter. Tomato juice is good though, don't you think?

Stop your "peck-peck-pecking" around, Mary Lawrence. We know all you are hoping for is a Garrett so you can settle down!

Betty Cook, we suggest that you carry a portable stepladder when you expect to go out with that heap big, tall Washington Man—just in case there are no trees around.

Atlas! Atlas! Jimmie can't take Dot Cobb to the opens this week-end because of a jam session. Some people just have no appreciation of the finer things!

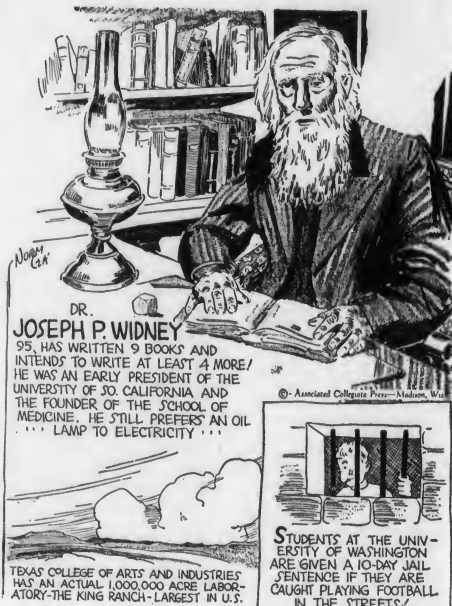

We heard about the three "Freshies" who put cracker crumbs in the Willard beds on Hallowe'en night. We, as upperclassmen, think it "soda crumbly."

After hearing of Lone's reaction to the statement "Three Loves Has Nancy," we wonder how he would feel if he knew about that bracelet from Ralph, too. What do you think, Nancy Hill?

Alright, you Johnson and Eanes, let's have round one, as to which is to attend the dances at Randolph-Macon; it's bad he can't have you both at the same time.

Jeanette Cooper, Raynell Goodman and Helen Horwitz certainly did have a swell time last week-end in Richmond. Just ask them!

CAMPUS ODDITIES

Bullet Begins New Feature; Column To Aid Lovelorn

Dear Lettie Lie:

I am a freshman at M. W. C. Last night I found a telegram from a boy. It said, "Will you go to the dance with me Thursday?" I do not know the boy, but I might learn to love him should I meet him. Please advise me: Should I accept this invitation and go to the dance? I might add that the telegram was addressed to Elsie Smith and my name is Sarah Jones.

Thank you,

Sarah.

Dear Sarah:

By all means plan to go—but not with him and not to the dance. Write to Staunton for further details.

Lettie Lie.

WOE IS US!

Radios blaring forth, lights blazing to the skies, screams and weeping mingled with tragic last good-byes. "Sounds like dumb, green freshmen come out from maternal wings!"

Frightened to hysteria by Mars' unearthly beings!

It's this younger generation brought up on horror tales, Buck Rogers-Flash Gordon influences with their gruesome wars and walls!"

So say the upper classmen in the great good light of day,

But had they had the fright themselves, they might have less to say.

Humbly we stand before them in scorn and ridicule.

One memory living eternally of our first few weeks of school.

Winifred Lenderman.

Louis Harris will attend the Presbyterian Students' Conference for the Synod of Virginia in Richmond over the week-end.

Miss Powell will have a guest this week-end, Miss Peanut Warner, from Madison College, Harrisonburg, Va.

News Flash! This is on the level so — Freshmen of Frances Willard please be calm. The Campus will really seem like old times this week-end with Alice Rife, "Clarkie", Cheatham, Dot Ball and Lib Johnson all coming back for the Hockey Tournament.

If conditions are favorable, Jean McCaffrey will go to Phoebus this week-end.

Jakie Edge, Mary Estes, Katherine Hynson, Gretchen Bubunzer, Alice Amary, Mary Ellen Seabourne and Mary Bland Dixon are all trucking down to the Junior-Senior Prom at Randolph-Macon College.

Maude Ray Smith, Elizabeth Hall, Maude Brown, and Sara Ann Chandler are going to Lynchburg to the Virginia Y. W. Area Meeting this week-end.

Jo Lee Fleet is flying to West Point this week-end. She is meeting Alumnae Rachel Shelton in Washington. Go West, girls, go West, but in mid-air; don't miss the "Point."

Jane Waugh and Margaret Emerick will go to Culpeper this week-end.

Jaimie Redwood will spend the week-end in Washington.

Kay Rucker is having as her guest this week-end, Mrs. Lawrence Kenyon (who we all know as Rosemary Babcock).

Lorraine Wolfson seems to be going to Richmond often now.

Who is it Lorraine?

Addie Lee Barrett went trucking home last Friday to Norfolk. Did she have a good time? Just ask her.

Kay Everhart is going to take a few days off and run-home. Watch out, Kay; we want you back here at least until the end of the year.

Alma Ea I Shaffer certainly did make a week-end of it. It's nice to go home once in awhile! Eh! Earl!

Who was the cute boy that came all the way from Boston to see Barbara Rice? Wasn't he darling?

Dot Cobb has a lovely treat in store for her Friday night. Oh, yes! Haven't you heard? She's going to the concert and also to be dance.

Betty Du'Pre wants to go to Chevy Chase this week-end. Don't worry, she'll get there. What's there Betty—beides home?

Adelaide Rosborough hopes to go to Richmond this week, if there are no more fires.

A former student, Frances Cook, will spend the week-end here with Reba and Geraldine McLain.

Nell Thomas and Kitty Meek will spend the week-end in Camden, Delaware—they hope.

Miss Mabelle Knopf, representative from Mary Washington College, returns from the All-Southern Baptist Conference in Memphis, Tennessee. She reports a most inspiring and helpful trip.

Among the outstanding speakers was Charles A. Wells, a writer, artist, and world traveler. He gave two superb illustrated talks on "Christ and World Need." Others include Dr. Truett, President of the Baptist World Alliance, Dr. Adams of Richmond, Dr. Scarborough, President of Southern Baptist Convention, and Dr. Dunning of London, England.

It is Miss Knopf's greatest desire to pass on to the students here the valuable information which she received at this conference.

"Wiz" Frizzes In The Dark

Miss Virgin's Ramsey and Miss Wiz Hall hit upon a new id a last night. This idea should save many college girls a great deal of trouble.

"Last night," said Wiz, "I merely started putting my hair up at ten rather than eleven."

Miss Ramsey added "I find it far more convenient and less exasperating, really."

When asked what had prompted the change in time, Miss Hall, blushing admitted, "Night before last I put my hair up after light bell. Later I found, much to my disgust, that in the dark I had put up Virginia's hair instead of mine."

YWCA - - Announcements

Dr. Moss, Mrs. Dodd, and Mr. Darter have been chosen Y. W. C. A. sponsors for the 1938-39 session. These faculty members were elected by Y. W. girls and approved by Dr. Combs.

Sara Ann Chandler, Maude Brown, Elizabeth Hall, and Rae Smith have been appointed delegates to the Y. W. C. A. State Area Meeting. The girls will go to Lynchburg Sunday, November 6, chaperoned by Dr. Moss, one of the recently elected sponsors.

PI SIGMA KAPPA CON'T (Continued from Page One)

The club was changed to the second Thursday in each month. After other routine business had been transacted, a very interesting program was presented. Adelaide Rosborough gave a history of Pi Sigma Kappa in which she traced the development during last year, when it was organized. A resume of Mary Washington College's first year of intercollegiate debating was given by Elizabeth Middleton. Manny Black gave a humorous reading called "Miss Pharaoh's Sunday School Class". To conclude the program, a dramatic selection entitled "The Congo" was given by Dorothy Harrington.

Spotting the Sports

With Jane Adams . . . . .

FOLLY IN THE GRANDSTANDS

SPORTS.

Hello! Is this anyone's place? May I sit down? Thank. I thought I'd never get down that ole hill. Anyway, I did get down before the hockey game started. I have never seen so many hockey players before; have you? I see by your uniform that you're from Hollins. I'm so glad that you all could come with your team here for the week end. I'm not one for making pretty speeches but I do hope that in some small way I can prove to you that we really are proud to have you in our midst.

We're really planning a big week-end here; you know, games, teas, banquets, and stuff 'n' things. To top all this, "The Apple" is gonna to be here. Oh didn't you know? Sure, she's gonna be right with us. 'Course you know who she is! You all wanta be sure and meet her; you might even learn a few things from her about English Country Dancing. I know, you thought she was here for hockey. I grant you that there isn't much similarity between hockey and folk dancing. In hockey you use a stick and in dancing, well, or, I guess you could call some of the partners sticks, but that wouldn't be very nice, so I guess they just aren't much alike. That doesn't make any gift to "The Apple" tho' she knows gots about them both. You will recall that she is from the ole home country; yea, from England.

Lots of other 'portant people are to be on the hill also, for the V. F. H. A. (I had to look that up, too I'll save you the trouble; it stands for Virginia Field Hockey Association. Land knows when I will get these alphabets strait. Last week it was V. I. P. A.). Many state officials and officers will be in our midst. They'll be worthwhile to look up.

Do I know whom? Helen Hyde? I should say so. She is Chairman of Hockey for the Hill tea. See that girl over there? Well, that's Ann Smith, our hockey captain.

We know her best as "Smitty." In that group at the far end of the field are Kay, Jo, Bob, Dinges, Helen, Bid, Winkle, Mildred, Pru Thompson, Marion, Mary Miller, Kitty, and lots of others but I can't recognize them from here—the sun is in my eyes. These girls make up our hockey squad. That triunvirate in the center of the field is composed of our Phys. Ed. Dept. Miss Kirk is in the middle; she's head of the staff. On her right is Miss Sinclair and on her left is Miss Rogers.

I guess you all are right in the middle of your hockey seasonal games. We are too, even if we don't have intercollegiate competition. Intramural games hold our fancy here. Boy, you should have seen that Jr.-Fresh. game last Thursday. It was a humdinger! The Juniors won, 2-1, but only after one of the toughest games of the season. It was the second victory for the Blue Team; they beat the Sophs two weeks ago. The yearlings made their first appearance at this game, but you should see them go. They're terrific!

We've been trying to have a soccer tournament also, but ole man Weather is cutting in on our time. Must be a jinx on soccer, 'cause I came down on the field three different times to referee and all three times the game was called off. 'Pears like to me that maybe I am the jinx. We're hoping to get it played off real soon, tho'.

By the way, what did you say your name is? Oh, sure, I don't know why I can't remember it. It's not that it's so hard but I just can't keep them all strait. Where are you from? You are? I visited there this summer. I bet you know lots of people that I know. Do you know Bill—er—oh, what is his last name? He's that tall blonde that dances just too divinely. I can't figure out why you don't know who I mean; I thought everyone knew Bill. Were you at the "13 Club" dance this summer? Now, I have it; that's where I have seen you before. I just knew that I had seen you some where. This certainly is a small world after all.

What's everybody yelling about? Aw, gee, here I have been talking all this time and we didn't see that goal. Ray! Rah! Rah! Team! Hey, which team scored that goal anyway? Well, I'll bet I didn't want that team to win.

She is chairman of Swimming on the Athletic Council and a member of the Bullet Staff. Mary Elizabeth is also interested in dramatics and a member of Mary Washington Players.

Margaret Gilman is an active member of the Swimming Club and the Cotillion Club. "Margie" also belongs to Alpha Pi Sigma and to the Science Club. The Treasurer, "Peggy" is in the Science Club and a member of Alpha Pi Sigma.

oh, well, it's all in the game anyway.

I gotta go now, so I guess I'll be seein' ya. I'm so glad to have seen you again. Don't forget that folk dancing class tonight; it oughta be pretty swell. Come to see us while you are here. There's my roommate calling me again so I'll have to hurry. Swell hockey games, aren't they? Don't forget. 'Bye now.
